

U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission – Fast Track Recall with Health Canada

Release Date: April 9, 2026

Release Number: 26-DRAFT FOR CLEARANCE

SCUBAPRO Recalls Monorail Weight Pockets for Buoyancy Compensator Devices (BCDs) Due to Risk of Serious Injury or Death from Drowning

Recall Summary

Name of Product: SCUBAPRO Monorail Weight Pockets for BCDs

Hazard: The D-ring handle that is used to unlock the weight pocket from the Buoyancy Compensator Device (BCD) can detach during use. If this happens, the user will not be able to remove the weight pocket in an emergency to rise to the surface, posing a risk of serious injury or death from a drowning hazard.

Remedy: Repair

Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled Monorail Weight Pocket and register online at <https://scubapro.johnsonoutdoors.com/us/recalls> for a free repair of the D-ring handle at a local authorized dealer or to obtain a prepaid shipping label to return the recalled weight pocket to SCUBAPRO for a free repair and free return shipping.

Consumer Contact: SCUBAPRO toll-free at 800-790-3757 from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. PT Monday through Friday, by email at mwpockets@scubapro.com or online at <https://scubapro.johnsonoutdoors.com/us/recalls> or <https://scubapro.johnsonoutdoors.com> and click on “Recalls” at the bottom of the page for more information.

About the U.S. CPSC

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) is charged with protecting the public from unreasonable risk of injury associated with the use of thousands of types of consumer products. Deaths, injuries, and property damage from consumer product-related incidents cost the nation more than $1 trillion annually. Since the CPSC was established more than 50 years ago, it has worked to ensure the safety of consumer products, which has contributed to a decline in injuries associated with these products.

Federal law prohibits any person from selling products subject to a Commission ordered recall or a voluntary recall undertaken in consultation with the CPSC.
